

Workshop scenario

Scriptwriter:

Organization: Centre for research and analysis (CRA)

Workshop title	How to support young research generation
Field	Business administration and leadership
Estimated number of presenters	3	Estimated number of participants	15/15
Duration of a single workshop	4 hours	Number of workshops	2
Workshop periodicity	1. workshop (2 modules – 4 hours), 2. workshop (2 modules – 4 hours)
Necessary equipment	Office equipment, PPP facilities, flipchart,
Necessary materials	General methodology upon education; presentations upon good practices, project culture and perspectives
Workshop objectives	activating senior adults by participating in research and CSO projects
Methods of work	Lecturers, discussions, world cafe
Workshop program	Attached
Expected effects of the workshop	More new knowledge; more information on project instruments
Evaluation methods	Informal survey

Guidance for performance of the activity
Session	Description	Time	Presenting
The methodology of the Activity	The training is designed to be very participatory and will apply the Adult Experiential Learning Cycle, which allows participants to observe concrete case studies, analyse them based on personal experiences, draw some lessons and apply them.
Tools and materials needed	Main tools that will be necessary to conduct the training are: projector, paper, pens, etc. Participants will use an Internet connection and portable devices.
Session 1	Icebreaker event  In this session discussion participants explore the key elements of successful design and setting up of Business administration and leadership	10 -15 min  15-20 min	PPP
Session 2	Q&A discussion	30 min	Discussion
Session 3	Examples of good practice on how citizen senior research is used in the field of Business administration or/and leadership.  Each participant will share main experiences and opinions regarding the inclusion of citizen senior researchers in their project. Debating of observations.  Practical illustration of the presented theory.	60 min	PPP and Discussion
Session 4	Divide the participants in groups in format world café, where : to be outlined knowledge and skills necessary for senior researchers to effectively participate in scientific research projects in the field.  Discussion	40 min	Training activities
Evaluation/ Survey	Evaluation questions for the workshop participants	45-60 min	Participants content survey and discussion